OBJECTIVES

Reading Article about ecotourism
 Writing Write a paragraph
 Listening A story about travelling and what happened when something went wrong
 Speaking Describe an event
 Language Past simple and past continuous
 Life skills Collaboration

Before you start

Discuss these questions in pairs.

- Why are tourists very important for a country?
- Where do tourists go in Egypt? Why do they go there?
- Are a lot of tourists always a good thing for a country?

Reading

- 1 Read the magazine article about some tourist destinations and match the photos to a country.

Ecotourism – is this the future?

What is ecotourism?

Ecotourism is about providing holidays to places which are often endangered and isolated. The holidays are designed to have a limited impact on the local environment and to educate tourists about conservation.

Egypt is developing ecotourism to protect the environments along the Red Sea coast. Tourists can stay in hotels built of environmentally friendly natural materials. When tourists go diving, they are taught how to avoid damaging the fish and keeping the special coral reefs safe.

Madagascar is famous for its ecotourism and wants to protect its ecosystem (the animals and plants in its environment). 80% of the animals, and 90% of the plants that live there don't exist anywhere else in the world. Lemurs, for example, only live in Madagascar.

The Galapagos Islands in Ecuador are famous for the unique animals, such as the giant turtles which live there. Ecuador makes sure that tourism is sustainable. Only a limited number of people can visit the islands each year, so the animals and their environment are safe.

The Komodo National Park in Indonesia is a popular ecotourism destination. Much of Indonesia's endangered wildlife, including the Komodo dragon, can only be found here. The National Park is also famous for its beach with pink sand.

2 Read the text again and answer the questions.

- 1 What is ecotourism? Ecotourism is holidays designed to have a limited impact on the local environment.
- 2 Which country ...?
 - A has giant turtles living there
 - B has hotels built of environmentally-friendly materials
 - C has a beach with pink sand
 - D wants to protect its lemurs
- 3 What do eco-tourists often do?
 - A stay in hotels
 - B learn new things about keeping the environment
 - C visit traditional villages
- 4 Which sentence best summarises the text?
 - A everywhere needs more tourists
 - B ecotourism provides holidays without harming the environment
 - C there should be no tourists in some places

Vocabulary

3 Find these words in the text, then complete the sentences. You can use a dictionary.

ecotourism ~~endangered~~ impact isolated materials environment sustainable unique

- 1 There are many endangered animals in the world, which we need to save.
- 2 Some animals live in very parts of the world and people never see them.
- 3 The tourist industry has had a big on the local town.
- 4 The natural world around us is the
- 5 It is important to only use local when building an eco-hotel.
- 6 The Komodo dragon is to Indonesia. It doesn't live anywhere else.
- 7 is for people who want a holiday which respects the environment.
- 8 We need to be sure that tourism here is otherwise people will stop coming.

Speaking

- 4 Discuss these questions in pairs.
- 1 How can a country benefit from ecotourism?
 - 2 How can you encourage ecotourism without harming the places people

Writing

- 5 Read the article again. Write one paragraph in your notebook about the advantages of tourism, a second paragraph about why ecotourism is important, and a third paragraph on how you could encourage ecotourism in your area.

LANGUAGE REVIEW PAGE 78

LANGUAGE

Past simple and past continuous

Past simple

- Use the past simple for completed actions in the past:
Luca trekked into the forest this morning.

Past continuous

- Use the past continuous (was/were + -ing) to show that an action was in progress at a certain time:
At 6 o'clock, I was looking at the orangutans.

- Use the past continuous with the past simple to show that a shorter action happened during another longer action:
I was leaning out of the boat when I dropped my camera. While, As, Just as, when and during

- While, As, Just, When and During
While (As/ Just as/ when) I was going home, I met one of my best friends. When I returned home, mother was prepaying lunch.

Note that we use the oldest action in the past continuous.

- While is followed by Verb + ing in case there is no subject after it:
While having lunch, Someone knocked on the door of our flat.

- During can give the meaning of while, but it is followed by a noun:

During the party, we saw most of our old friends.

- We can have two actions in the past continuous if they are happening at the same time:

We were tidying our room while our little brother was watching TV. I liked that programme.

- Some verbs are not used in the continuous form. These are called stative verbs such as: be, love, like, want, seem, ... etc.

While I was at home, my uncle suddenly returned from Italy.

Lesson 3

Before you start

Discuss these questions in pairs.

- 1 What do you usually do during your school holidays?
- 2 How do you feel during school holidays?

Reading

1 Read these two blogs. How does each person feel?

This is me on our hotel balcony in Sharm El-Sheikh. It's brilliant here and there are loads of things to do. I'm over the moon visiting Egypt. The weather's really hot so we spend most of the time in the water.

 James

 My sister and I are learning to dive with some other teenagers at the resort. I love diving; it's so relaxing and you can see all these amazing fish in the sea. I want to get an underwater camera so I can take photos of them.

 Last week, we were in Luxor and visited the ancient temples there. I'm not usually interested in history, but I actually found them fascinating and am really glad we went there.

Day 10 of my summer holidays! I'm so bored – all my friends are away or busy with their family and I'm stuck here at home. The weather's awful and there's nothing to do.

 Katy

 Last week, I went to stay with my grandparents for a few days, which was nice, but they live in a tiny village with no shops. I was helping Granddad in his garden most of the time. He grows all his own vegetables – he says it's cheaper than buying them.

 Maybe I'll try and grow some lettuce in our garden when it stops raining. I was watching a programme on TV this morning about gardening – maybe I'll have a new hobby!

2 Answer the questions. Write Katy, James or Both.

A Who ...?

- 1 isn't going away this summer? Katy
- 2 is enjoying himself/herself?
- 3 learnt something new?
- 4 helped grow something?
- 5 enjoyed something they didn't expect to?

B Do you think they made good use of their holidays? Why? Why not?

Speaking

3 Discuss these questions in pairs.

- 1 Is it important to have a holiday every year? Why/why not?
- 2 Which new hobbies would you like to try during the school holidays? Why?
- 3 What can you do in your area during the school holidays?

REMEMBER!

Blogs often use idioms:

Over the moon = very excited or happy

I'm stuck = I can't move

Loads of things = a lot of things

Before you start

- Look at these popular holiday destinations. Where do you think they are?

busy

- 1 In pairs, match the words to the pictures. You can use each word more than once. Write in your notebook.

Reading

- 2 Read about Lara's holiday. Put the sentences a–h in the order you think they happened.
- a As I was photographing the castle, my little brother started crying.
 - b We walked around Lisbon and I took lots of photos.
 - c We went to the shops, they are a bit expensive but my mum was happy.
 - d My uncle met us at the airport and drove us to the old part of town. It's very quiet and peaceful.
 - e We sailed along the river to see the sun going down. It was beautiful and very relaxing!
 - f We went to Europe to visit my cousins in Portugal.
 - g My uncle decided to take us to a restaurant for lunch.
 - h He was eating an ice cream and a bird stole it! He was very upset.

VOCABULARY

Check the meanings of these words in a dictionary.

active ancient beautiful boring busy calm crowded exotic isolated modern new noisy
 old peaceful relaxing quiet

Writing

- 3 Work in pairs. Discuss where you could add these words to the text in Exercise 2. Then write the text in order with the joining words to form a complete paragraph in your notebooks.
- After that Finally Last year
 Next On the first day
- 4 Write a paragraph to describe a place that you have been to. Use Exercises 1 and 3 to help you.

Writing tip

A paragraph is usually three or four sentences long. Begin with the reason you are writing. It is very important to provide a strong topic sentence in a paragraph. A topic sentence is a sentence that summarizes the main idea of the paragraph. It is usually the first sentence. Remember to use linking words (and, but, because, although etc.) when necessary.

Lesson 5

Treasure Island

Before you read

- Look at the pictures. What do you think the story is about?

Chapter 1

Jim Hawkins:

I'll start by writing about the time when my father owned an inn called the Admiral Benbow, many years ago. I remember the day when a man walked into the inn. He was tall and strong, with an old blue coat and a scar on his face. He looked around him.

"This is a nice, quiet place. I'll stay here. Please, take this up to my room," he said, pointing to a large wooden box.

"You can call me Captain. And this is for you," he continued, handing my father three or four gold coins.

The Captain was usually a quiet man. He spent his days walking on the beach or on the cliffs. When he came back, he always asked, "Did any sailors visit the inn today?" At first, we thought he wanted to find some other sailors, but later we realised that he didn't want any sailors to find him.

In the evenings, the Captain sometimes told stories about his time at sea. My father was worried that nobody would want to visit the inn because they would be frightened by the Captain's stories, but I think people liked them.

The Captain stayed at the inn for months. He did not give us any more money for his room and my father did not dare to ask him for more.

One morning, the Captain went for a walk along the beach. I was helping my mother to make breakfast when another man walked into the inn. He was thin and pale, with three fingers on his left hand. He sat down and asked, "Is this table here for my friend Bill?"

I told him that I did not know Bill and said that the table was for the Captain.

"Well, my friend Bill might say that he's the Captain," he said. "He has a scar on his face

"That's right," he replied. "I've found my friend Bill! We've had a lot of adventures since I lost these fingers!"

I left them to talk. Then suddenly there were loud shouts and both men stood up and ran outside. The Captain had a sword and then I saw Black Dog running away with blood on his arm. The man continued running until we could not see him.

The Captain walked back into the inn. He looked ill and suddenly he fell over. I thought perhaps he was hurt from the fight. At that moment, the doctor arrived to see my father who was sick.

and likes to tell a story. Is that him?"

"Yes," I said. "He's gone for a walk."

"Which way did he walk?" he asked.

I pointed towards the beach. The man stood up and waited by the door for the Captain to return.

When the Captain saw the man, he looked pale and ill.

"Black Dog!" the Captain said.

"Help us, Dr Livesy! The Captain is hurt!" said my mother.

The doctor looked at him and said, "He is not hurt, but he is very ill. Help me to take him upstairs."

We took the Captain up to his bedroom and the doctor gave him some medicine. The Captain stayed in bed, but he was not quiet. He told me about his travels at sea, and said that he had something which people wanted.

1 Lesson 5

"Black Dog is not as bad as some of the other men," he said, "They all want to find me. Tell me if you see them!"

That evening, my father died. I felt terrible and forgot all about the strange things that the Captain told me.

Then, a week later, I saw a blind man coming down the road towards the inn. He stopped outside the door when he was near and asked, "Where am I? Will a kind person help me?"

"You are at the Admiral Benbow Inn in Black Hill Cove," I told him.

At that moment, he grabbed my hand.

"Take me to the Captain!" he said. "Take me to him now!"

I walked with the blind man into the inn and took him to the Captain. The Captain looked very surprised to see him.

"Now, Bill, stay where you are. I can hear you. Take this." He then put something in the Captain's hand, turned round and left.

The Captain looked at what the man gave him.

"Ten o'clock!" he said. "I have time!"

Then the Captain suddenly fell to the floor. He was dead.

I found my mother and we talked about what we should do. We knew that the Captain had a box in his room and it probably had money in it.

The blind man and Black Dog probably wanted this. I thought about taking the box to Dr Livesy, but I did not want to leave my mother. We knew that we were in a danger. We decided to go to the nearest village and ask our neighbours for help guarding the inn.

However, none of the people in the village wanted to help us. They did not come back with us, but one man went to tell Dr Livesy. Another man said that we could have his gun.

It was dark when we returned to the inn. We found the key to the box in the captain's jacket. I also saw the message that the blind man gave to the Captain. It said, "You have until ten o'clock tonight."

We went upstairs and my mother soon opened the box with the key. Inside, we found some clothes, some guns, some papers and other things. We also found a bag with some coins inside.

"We only have time until ten o'clock," I said. "Let's leave before the blind man and Black Dog return."

"I'll only take the money which the Captain owes us," my mother said, opening the bag.

We stood up to leave, and I decided to take the papers from the box, too. We walked as quickly as we could back towards the village, but as we walked, we heard the sound of people in the road behind us.

"Take the money and run," said my mother. "I'm too weak to continue."

I did not want to leave her, so we stopped under a bridge, where we could hide in the dark.

Before you start

People who help

Mohamed Salah

Mohamed Salah is one of Egypt's most famous footballers. He is admired for his speed and ability to score goals. In 2017, he scored the goal to send Egypt to their first World Cup finals since 1990.

Salah has been praised for his kind and generous donations to charity in Egypt. He donated money to his hometown of Nagrig to build a school, and he has helped a children's cancer hospital in Cairo.

Salah's desire to help others is because he wants to give young people a chance to succeed. He is a role model to millions of Egyptians who gave him the nickname 'The Happiness Maker'.

- Who is in the photo?
- How do you think he helps people in the community?

FOCUS ON VOCABULARY

Check the meanings of these words in a dictionary.

blood pressure
 generous iron levels
 role model speed
 transplant

Blood donors

Every year on 14th June, countries around the world take part in World Blood Donor Day to share information about the importance of giving blood.

Why should people donate blood? Donating blood can help people if they have been badly injured or need regular blood transplants because they have a long-term illness.

Giving blood can also have health benefits. All donors have their blood pressure and iron levels checked before donation, so people who donate blood can find out quickly if they have any health problems.

Giving blood can save lives and it is easy to do!

Vocabulary

- Read both parts of the text. Match the meanings below with words in the text.
 - well-known famous
 - respected someone
 - gave something
 - wish
 - hurt
 - for a long time

Reading

- Read both texts quickly and choose to complete the sentences.
 - Mohamed Salah helps people by
 - building houses.
 - giving money.
 - playing football.
 - All of the above.
 - People should give blood because
 - it helps injured people.
 - it increases health benefits.
 - it is not easy to do.
 - Both A and B.
 - World Blood Donor Day is on
 - 13th June.
 - 14th June.
 - 24th June.
 - 14th of July.

- What is the main idea of the two texts?
 - You can help people if you work in important jobs.
 - It is easy to help people, but it takes a lot of time.
 - You can help people anywhere at any time.

- Read the texts again and answer the questions.
 - What do people around the world think of Salah?
 - What has Salah helped to build in Nagrig?
 - Why is Salah sometimes called 'The Happiness Maker'?
 - Why do people celebrate World Blood Donor Day on 14th June each year?
 - Why should people donate blood?
- Discuss this question in pairs.
 - What benefits do you think both Salah and the blood donors get from their efforts?

1 You are going to listen to a talk. First, look at the photos. In pairs, discuss what you think the talk will be about.

1.1 2 Now listen to an interview about Dr Leelah Hazzah. Complete the sentences with one word.

Conservation in the community

There were lions in 1 Egypt in the past, but now they have all gone. Dr Leelah Hazzah first heard about lions from her 2. This inspired her to study biology and conservation. There are now less than 3 lions in Africa today.

Villagers are often 4 with the lions as they kill their cows and goats. When the villagers kill a lion, a young man gets a new 5.

Leelah Hazzah studied in America, then spent one 6 with the Maasai in Kenya. Now she works with Lion Guardians, who recognise that the Maasai have the 7 to find wild lions.

These days, many young men do 8 with the conservationists. Lion Guardians gave some men 9 so that they can earn regular money.

It is important that conservationists listen to 10 people.

Speaking

3 Discuss these questions in pairs.

- 1 Do you think that conservation programmes are of benefit to the environment? Why? Why not?
- 2 What other conservation programmes do you know about?

Present simple and past simple

FOCUS ON

Use the present simple

- for situations or actions that are usually true:

Mohamed Salah gives money to help build a school in Egypt.
The earth goes around the sun.

- for habits or repeated actions, often with frequency adverbs:
I often watch television in the evening.

I usually go to school by bus/ I'm used to going to school by bus

- In timetables and after time clauses:

I go home after I finish work.
The first lesson starts at 8.15.

Use the past simple

- for completed actions and successive actions in the past:

Leelah Hazzah moved to Kenya to study lions.
Last weekend, I went to the club and met my friends.

- for repeated actions and habits in the past:

Leelah's father told her stories every evening when she was a child.
My grandfather always walked to work when he was young. (He used to walk to work when he was young.)

Questions

For questions in the present simple, use do and does:

Do you like lions?

Does Mohamed Salah play for Liverpool?

For questions in the past, use did:

Did Leelah Hazzah study in America?

4 Complete the sentences with the correct present or past simple form of the verbs in the box.

 - 4 Lions (not hunt) as much as in the past.
 - 5 Money (bring) into the area by tourists.
 - 6 Lion Guardians (need) in other countries.

REMEMBER!

Words for jobs often end in -ist, for example biologist, artist, scientist.

Working together

Lions are disappearing all over Africa but there is some hope now after the amazing work of an organisation called Lion Guardians, which is based in Kenya, but Guardians help in nearby Tanzania. The aim of Lion Guardians is to help local people to protect their own livestock and reduce the number of lion killings in the area.

Cattle are important to the villagers but they often go missing or are attacked by lions. Then the lions are killed as villagers worry about losing more livestock.

Lion Guardians is changing this. The organisation works with the community to help both the lions and their livestock and this is done by employing local people. Maasai men are chosen to become guardians as they understand lions and have the skills needed to monitor their movements, find missing livestock and stop hunting parties who kill the lions for sport. They are taught to be field biologists and are given a sense of responsibility.

Lions are monitored everyday and the information is sent to the cattle farmers who can then make sure their cows are safe.

Lion Guardians are very successful. They help the future of lions as well as the local communities.

Lesson 5

Treasure Island

Before you read

- What do you think will happen next in the story?

Chapter 2

I could see the road from where we were hiding, and soon I saw eight men. One of them was the blind man. I saw them walk down the road to the Admiral Benbow Inn. They were surprised to see that the door was open, then they all ran inside. I heard someone shout, "Bill's dead!"

"Go and find his box," said the blind man.

A little later, a window opened from the Captain's bedroom and a man called out, "Someone has opened the box!"

"Is it there?" said the blind man.

"Only the money is there," replied the man.

"It's the boy and the woman from the inn!" shouted the blind man. "Let's find them!"

The men started to look around the house.

"If you find it you'll all be rich!" said the blind man.

At this time, we heard horses coming down the road. When the men heard the horses, they started to run in all directions.

The horses arrived, so I ran out to see who was riding them. One of them was the boy who went to get Dr Livesy, and the rest were policemen. Two men took my mother to the village, where she soon felt better, and the others tried to catch the men. But it was too late: we heard that they escaped on a boat. I returned to the Admiral Benbow with the police.

"What did they want?" said Mr Dance, the head of the police.

"I think that they wanted this," I said, showing him the papers that I still had in my jacket. "I'd like to take them to Dr Livesy."

"That's a good idea," said Mr Dance. "He's a magistrate as well as a doctor. He'll know what to do. I'll come with you."

We found that Dr Livesy was not at home, but was eating at the house of Mr Trelawney, an important rich man. Mr Trelawney asked us into his house. I showed Mr Trelawney and Dr Livesy the papers that the Captain had in his box.

"I think this might be a clue as to where Flint buried his treasure!" said Dr Livesy.

"That is why those men were not interested in money," agreed Mr Trelawney. "If you are right, we should take the next boat from Bristol and go and find the treasure ourselves!"

"If Jim here agrees," said the doctor, looking at me, "we should look at these papers now."

The doctor looked at the papers. Some of them seemed to describe the ships that the Captain and his men had robbed of money. Then we looked at the other papers and saw a map of an island, with a big cross on it next to the words, "most of treasure here."

"Dr Livesy, we should go to Bristol tomorrow," said Mr Trelawney. "In a few days, we'll find the best ship in England. Jim Hawkins here can come as our ship's boy. You can be the ship's doctor."

Lesson 5

"I agree," said the doctor, "but those men who tried to find the map will now be looking for us. We are not safe anymore. We must not tell anyone else what we know."

It took us longer than we thought to be ready to leave England. While Mr Trelawney prepared for the journey in Bristol, I stayed at Mr Trelawney's house with his servant Redruth and spent hours studying the map, thinking about the treasure that we might find.

One day, a letter was sent to me from Mr Trelawney. It said that a good man called Blandy had a ship called the Hispaniola for us. Trelawney said that he had found a crew ready to work on it. The crew included a man called Long John Silver, who had lost a leg but was a good cook. Silver also knew other men who would join us. Trelawney said that everyone was excited by the thought of the treasure. I was surprised by this, as I thought we had to keep the news of the treasure a secret.

I was very excited by the thought of the journey and I went to say goodbye to my mother at the Admiral Benbow Inn. I was very sad to leave her the next day, when I travelled to Bristol with Redruth. We had just one night in the city before we were going to sail.

David Copperfield

'This is Mr Quinion, David,' Mr Murdstone said. 'You're going to work for him at Murdstone and Grinby, the bottle merchants, in London. You'll earn enough money to pay for your food, and I've arranged a place for you to live.'

I was ten years old and I was going to go to work.

And it was hard work. I went to a dirty old house near the river where rats lived under the floors. There my job was to wash empty bottles with three other boys, and I hated it.

One morning, a plump man came to see me with Mr Quinion.

'Ah, Master Copperfield!' the man said 'This is Mr Micawber,' Mr Quinion told me. 'You will be living at his house.'

And that evening, Mr Micawber took me home. His wife – a thin, tired-looking lady – was sitting with a baby. The baby was one of twins, and they had a boy of four and a girl of three.

I soon discovered that the Micawbers were poor and that Mr Micawber owed money to several people. One morning the police came and took Mr Micawber away to prison because of his debts. I went to see him there the next Sunday.

'If a man earns twenty pounds a year and spends nineteen pounds, he'll be happy,' he said. 'But if he spends twenty pounds and a penny, he'll be miserable.'

Reading

2 At the beginning of David Copperfield, David's mother dies and he has no parents. The man who looks after him, Mr Murdstone, has some more bad news for him. Read the extract and find out what this is.

3 Read the extract again and check your answers to the Before you start section.

4 Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?

- 1 David Copperfield is not going to live with Mr Murdstone any more.
- 2 Mr Murdstone found him a good job at a modern building.
- 3 Mr and Mrs Micawber had four children.
- 4 The police took Mr Micawber to prison because he often hurt people.
- 5 Mr Micawber tells David that he would be very unhappy if he had money.

REMEMBER!

You cannot use very before strong adjectives like miserable because it already means very unhappy.

To which of these adjectives can you add very to make them stronger?

good amazing terrible cold

Speaking

- 5 Discuss these questions in pairs.
- 1 Why do you think Mr Murdstone sent David to work in a factory?
 - 2 Who did David work with and why?
 - 3 Why do you think that Mr Micawber wanted David to live in his house?
 - 4 Do you think that people who owe money should go to prison? Why/Why not?
 - 5 'If a man earns twenty pounds a year and spends nineteen pounds, he'll be happy.' Do you agree with Mr Micawber? Why/Why not?

I think Mr Murdstone didn't want to give David money, so he wanted him to earn his own money in a factory.

Lesson 5

Treasure Island

Before you read

- What do you think life is like on the Hispaniola?

Chapter 3

The next morning, Mr Trelawney asked me to take a note to Long John Silver. I went to the inn which Silver owned. It was full of people, but I soon saw a tall, strong man with one leg. He looked very happy and seemed to know all of the people there. I walked up to him and gave him the note. When he saw that it was from Mr Trelawney, he looked surprised and said, "Ah, you must be the new ship's boy!"

At that moment, one of the men in the inn quickly left the room. I saw that he had three fingers on one hand.

"It's Black Dog!" I called. "Stop him!"

"Yes, stop him! He did not pay for his food!" called Silver to one of his helpers. The helper ran after the door.

"Do you know that man? Black Dog, is it?" Silver asked me.

"Yes, he was one of the men who attacked my home. Did Mr Trelawney tell you about that?" I replied.

"Ah, yes. I've seen him in my inn before. He sometimes comes with a blind man."

"The blind man is called Pew," I said. "He was with Black Dog when they attacked."

"Then we must catch them both," said Silver. However, the helper returned and said he could not catch Black Dog.

"Well, we must return to Mr Trelawney," said Silver.

We walked back along the harbour past boats of different sizes, all preparing to go to sea.

Silver told me all about the boats and I knew that he was a great sailor.

We found Dr Livesy with Mr Trelawney when we returned to his hotel, and told them about Black Dog.

"There is nothing we can do now," said Mr Trelawney. "We leave at four o'clock this afternoon. Get your hat, Jim, we'll go on the ship now," he said to me.

It took some time to reach the Hispaniola. When we walked onto the big ship, the captain, Smollett, did not look happy to see us.

"What's the problem?" asked Mr Trelawney.

"I don't like the men on this ship and I'm not happy about where we're going," he said.

"Why not?" asked Dr Livesy.

"I was told that the destination of the journey was a secret," he explained. "But the crew tell me we're looking for treasure. I know that looking for treasure always means danger. And when I go on a journey, I like to be able to choose my own crew."

"Don't you like the crew we chose?" asked Mr Trelawney.

"If I sail with them, I want you to stay at the front of the ship for all the journey, and to keep guns with you. And don't show anyone the map," said Smollett.

"Are you worried there will be a mutiny?" asked Dr Livesy.

"It's my job to keep you safe, that's all," said Smollett, and walked to another part of the ship.

"I think you've two good men on the ship," said Dr Livesy. "That's Long John Silver and Captain Smollett."

"I know Long John Silver is a good man," said Mr Trelawney, "but I don't think Captain Smollett is."

I agreed with Mr Trelawney. I did not like Captain Smollett.

The Hispaniola finally left Bristol and our long journey began. Silver was able to walk around the ship on one leg, using only a crutch. All the men liked him and he was a good cook, his kitchen always clean. When he wasn't working, he looked after his parrot. He called it Captain Flint and said it was 200 years old. The parrot could talk, too, which always made me laugh.

One night, before I went to bed, I decided to eat an apple. The apples were kept in a big barrel which I climbed inside, because it was nearly empty. Before I left the barrel, I heard a man talking nearby. It was Silver and what he said was terrible.

"On that journey, Flint was the captain," he said. "It was then that I lost my leg and Pew became blind. After that journey, I put a lot of money in the bank. It was a great journey, and most of the same crew are on this ship today."

"You won't be able to return to Bristol after this journey," said another sailor called Dick. "What will happen to your inn?"

"I've sold it," said Silver. "My wife has the money and is waiting for me to return in a secret place. And after this journey, you'll have lots of money, too."

Another man joined them and said, "I'm tired of waiting. When can we attack Captain Smollett?"

"You must be patient," said Silver. "Trelawney has the map, so we wait until they have found the treasure. We might also want Smollett to take us home before we attack."

"We shouldn't wait that long," replied another sailor.

"You're like the others," said Silver. "You want to do things quickly. That's what Pew and Flint wanted to do. What happened to them? Pew is blind and Flint is dead."

I began to realise that Silver was not only a cook, but he was also a pirate, and the other crew were part of his gang.

"No, we wait," continued Silver. "When the time is right, I'll kill Trelawney and his friends! Now, Dick, can you get me an apple?"

When I heard these words, I was very frightened. However, before Dick came to the barrel, I heard another sailor call out:

"I can see land!"

It was this news that saved me, because the sailors now all forgot about apples. We were near the Treasure Island.

Reading

- 1 Read both texts and answer these questions.
 - 1 Who is good friends with Mohamed Elneny?
 - 2 How has Ramy Ashour helped young Egyptians?
- 2 Are these sentences true (T) or false (F)?
 - 1 Mohamed Elneny and Mo Salah became friends in Nasr City.
 - 2 Elneny moved to Europe at the same time as Mo Salah.
 - 3 Mo Salah followed Elneny to Switzerland.

Mohamed Elneny

Mohamed Elneny is a famous Egyptian footballer. He is a strong player, and he has played for the Egyptian national team more than 60 times. He has scored more than six times for Egypt, and he is often on television. Elneny was born in 1992 and moved from his boyhood club Al Ahly, in Cairo, to Al-Mokawlon in Nasr City in 2010. He played for Al-Mokawlon at the same time as Mohamed Salah, and the two footballers became good friends. In 2013, Elneny went to Switzerland and joined Basel, one year after Salah went to the same club. Then Elneny went to London, England to join Arsenal.

He is still good friends with Salah. 'I'm happy to have been with him since the beginning and he has not changed,' he says.

Ramy Ashour

Ramy Ashour is one of Egypt's most famous faces. For many years, he was the best squash player in the world. Ramy was born in Cairo in 1987. In 2004, he won the World Junior Squash Championship when he was just 16. He was the youngest player ever to win it. Ramy also won the Professional Squash Association World Championship three times, and he was probably the best squash player in the world for ten years. In 2013, he became the first Egyptian to win the oldest tournament in squash, the British Open. Ashour is a role-model for many young Egyptians. They play squash because of him.

- 4 Elneny says that Mo Salah is different now.
- 5 Ramy Ashour was probably the world's best squash player for ten years.

Reading

- 1 Read this blog. What is different about characters in a short story and a long story?

Why write a long book when you can write a short story? A short story can have 200 words or less. The writer can't describe many people or places and so there aren't so many adjectives in a short story. However, we still need a beginning, a middle and an end to the story. And the story needs to be interesting, so we include important information and an interesting main character, but perhaps only one. In fact, it can be interesting to write in the first person (I did this ...) and then the person telling the story is the main character. Readers can't learn much about this character, perhaps not even their name, but something has to happen to them. This might be a surprise, a problem or something that goes wrong. Readers don't always find out what the character does in the end, but they need to be able to imagine the end of the story.

- 2 Read the text again. Are these statements true (T) or false (F)

- 1 There are a lot of adjectives in a short story. F
- 2 You do not need to give a lot of information about the main character.
- 3 A short story can't be written in the first person.
- 4 A short story needs a problem, a surprise or something that goes wrong.
- 5 The reader should be able to finish the story in his or her head.

- 3 Read this short story and answer the questions.

On a hot night long ago, Tutankhamun, Pharaoh of Egypt, had a dream about a strange man. The man said his name was Howard Carter. But Tutankhamun was a busy man. He worked to run the country and completely forgot his dream. It was many centuries later when Howard Carter found him.

- 1 Who are the main characters? What do we know about them?
- 2 What happens at the beginning, the middle and at the end?
- 3 Is there a surprise or a problem? What is it?
- 4 Do you think the story is interesting? Why/Why not?

- 4 Use the internet or a library to find other examples of short stories.

Writing

- 1 In groups, you are going to plan a short story. Make notes to help you.

Making new friends

OBJECTIVES

Reading A magazine article about moving to a new town
 Writing An email to a magazine's problem page
 Listening A radio phone-in about bullying at school
 Speaking Having a debate
 Language Articles, Countable/ uncountable nouns
 Life skills Respect for diversity; Communication

Before you start

Look at the photographs and answer the questions in pairs.

- What can teenagers do to make friends in a new town?
- What do you think is the best thing to do when you are in a new town?

Vocabulary

1 Check in a dictionary, then choose the meaning for these words and phrases.

- | | |
|------------------------------|--|
| 1 advice | a to think something is true or will stay the same |
| 2 take something for granted | b an opinion someone gives to help you |
| 3 noticeboard | c something that brings people together |
| 4 connection | d a thing on a wall that people put information on |

Reading

2 Read the teen magazine article quickly and answer the questions.

- 1 What does the writer think is the most difficult thing about moving to a new town?
- 2 What three things does the writer say you should do to make friends and feel happy at a new school?

New in town

It's day one at a new school in a new town. You've got all the paper and pens you need. You're wearing cool new clothes. But you don't know anyone and you're not sure where to go. Starting at a new school feels so hard because you don't have any friends there to help you. It's very easy to feel stressed, but life will get easier. Here's some advice to help you.

Don't take it for granted that other students will start a conversation. Ask other people questions about themselves. Everyone likes talking about themselves. Try asking them about their favourite subjects or which sports they like and don't ask too many personal questions.

You can only make friends if you spend time with them! The best way to do this is to join clubs or do team sports you like. Go online or look at the noticeboard at your school and find out what's happening. If you're part of a team, your teammates will feel connected to you and that connection could become a friendship.

While you're busy talking to other students, don't forget to study. Remember to do your homework so you don't have any problems with your teachers. Those teachers can also give you some advice on how to make friends and enjoy life in your new town. Talk to them too.

3 Read the article again and answer the questions.

- 1 What is the main idea of the text?
New students should try to get to know people.
- 2 Why is it a good idea to ask other students questions about themselves?
- 3 What shouldn't you ask other students?
- 4 How can you find out about clubs and sports?
- 5 Why do team sports make it easier for you to make friends?
- 6 How can you avoid problems with your teachers at your new school?
- 7 How can your teachers help you?
- 8 Which way would you prefer to follow if you went to a new school?
- 9 Starting a new school might be hard, but it can help to ...
 - A find ways to connect with other people
 - B focus on teacher's notes to get high grades
 - C play in a team sport
 - D both A and B

5 Work in pairs. Discuss.

- 1 There's a new student in your class called Imad. He tells you that he likes playing football. You like playing football, too. What can you do to help Imad feel happy at his new school?
- 2 There's a new student in your class called Sara. She tells you that she doesn't know how to get to the the school library. You know where it is. What can you do to help Sara feel happy at her new school?

Subject: Help! I don't have any friends at my new school!

Dear Aunt Carol,
 I think it is difficult to make friends. I don't have any friends at my new school. I am always on my own at break-time. Yesterday, I talked to a girl in my class. I asked her if she wanted to do some homework with me but she said no.
 I need some advice about how to make friends.

Subject: Help! I'm really stressed!

Dear Aunt Carol,
 I always work very hard at school, but I'm really stressed about some exams I have next week. The first two exams are 3 hours long and will be very difficult. The last exam is in a subject I'm not very good at. I've spent a lot of time studying in the library this week, but that hasn't helped me feel better.
 I need some advice about how to relax, please.

FOCUS ON

Countable and uncountable nouns, and articles

Countable and uncountable nouns

- Use the following words with countable nouns: a/an, the, a number, some (plural nouns, usually affirmative), any (plural nouns, usually negative or questions)
- Uncountable nouns have only one form (they can't be preceded by a/ an or changed into plural.): advice, homework
- Use the following words with uncountable nouns: the, some, any

Note:

Some is used in affirmative sentences.

Any is used in negative sentences and questions.

Articles

Definite article: The

- Use the with singular and plural nouns.
- Use the when there's only one of something or you are talking about one specific example of something (the earth, the news).

- Use the to refer to something for the second time.

I read a book. The book is really useful.

- The is used before the names of countries preceded by Republic/Kingdom/ States, etc (The Arab Republic of Egypt/ The kingdom of Saudi Arabia / The United states of America, etc).

Note:

We say: I live in Egypt /the Arab Republic of Egypt

Not: I live in the Egypt.

Indefinite article: A/an

- Use a before singular countable nouns starting with a constant sound (a friend, a uniform, a European country).
- Use an before singular countable nouns starting with a vowel sound (an apple, an idea, an honest man).
- Use a or an to refer to one of many things.
- Use a or an to refer to something for the first time.

Writing

- 7 Think of a problem people might have at school. Write an email to a problem page in your notebook. Answer these questions to form three paragraphs.
- 1 What is the reason for the problem? What is happening?
 - 2 What are the effects of the problem on the students?
 - 3 What do students need advice about? Who can they ask for advice?

Before you start

- What is bullying? Is it:
 - a not talking to other pupils?
 - b being nasty to other pupils?
 - c copying other pupils' homework?
- Do you know anyone who has been bullied at school? Did they do anything to stop the bullying?
- What do you think teenagers should do if they're being bullied at school?
 - a They should do nothing.
 - b They should fight the bullies.
 - c They should tell their parents or their teachers.

Vocabulary

- 1 Match the words with their descriptions.

1 bullying	a the person
2 a bully	b the verb
3 to bully	c the activity

Listening

- 2 Listen to a radio phone-in about bullying. Answer the questions.
 - 1 Why are other pupils bullying Ali?
Because he's not very good at football.
 - 2 What effect has the bullying had on Ali?
 - 3 What will happen if Ali does nothing?
- 3 Listen again. Choose the correct word or phrase to complete the sentences.
 - 1 The radio show host says that a lot of / not many teenagers are bullied at school.
 - 2 Ali is a 15-year-old / 16-year-old boy and other teenagers are bullying him.
 - 3 Last week, two boys hid Ali's jacket / rucksack at school.
 - 4 Ali was too worried / sad to tell his teachers about the bullying.
 - 5 Ali tells the radio show host that he will talk to his parents / a teacher about the bullying.

Speaking

- 4 Discuss these questions in pairs.
 - 1 Teenagers who are different to other teenagers at school, for example because they have different physical abilities, are bullied more often. Do you agree? Why? Why not?
 - 2 Do you think that people are worried about people who are different to them?
 - 3 How can we help people who are different to us instead of bullying them?
 - 4 What can we learn from people who are different to us?

Good things	Bad things
Learning about a new place

Listening

- 1 Listen to Ola and Lina giving their opinions.
- Who thinks moving to a new school in another town is good for teenagers?
 - Did they say the same good and bad things that you listed in the Before you start section? Can you add to your list?

I think I would miss my old friends.

Speaking

- 2 Work in pairs.

Student A: Tell Student B the positive effects of moving to a new school in another town for teenagers.

Student B: Listen to Student A's opinions. Then tell Student A the negative effects of moving to a new school in another town for teenagers.

- 3 Work in groups and have a debate.
- Use your ideas from Exercise 2 to debate the good things and the bad things about moving to a new school in another town for teenagers.
 - When everyone has spoken, decide if you think moving to a new school in another town is easy or difficult for teenagers. Have a class vote.

REMEMBER!

When you have a class debate:

- take turns to speak.
- listen carefully to other speakers' opinions.
- when they finish speaking, you can agree or disagree politely.
- Use expressions like I agree/I disagree/I'm not sure about that.

Lesson 5

Treasure Island

Before you read

- In Chapter 3, Jim learns that there are pirates in the crew. What do you think he does next?

Chapter 4

I heard people running to look at the island, and I quietly climbed out of the barrel. I then walked up to join the sailors at the side of the ship. We could see two low hills and one big one. The island was now very close.

"I've been here before," said Silver. "I know where the ship should stop."

"I have a map here," said Captain Smollett. "Can you take us to that place?"

I saw that Silver was excited to take the map, but it was not the one with the treasure marked on it.

"Yes, I can see it. You must go here," he said, pointing to a place on the map.

Then he turned to me and said, "You'll love this island. You can swim and climb trees and walk up the hills!"

I smiled at Silver, but inside I was very frightened of him now. I could not trust anything that he said.

I soon found Dr Livesy and quietly said to him, "I must speak to you, Captain Smollett and Mr Trelawney. I have some terrible news."

Dr Livesy's expression did not change. He asked me to find his glasses downstairs and walked off to talk to Mr Trelawney and Smollett.

I waited downstairs and soon the three men joined me.

"What do you want to tell us?" asked Mr Trelawney.

I told them everything that I had heard in the barrel. When I finished talking, they thanked me.

"Captain," said Mr Trelawney. "You were right and I was wrong. What shall we do?"

"I'm surprised too," said Captain Smollett. "They have worked hard and been a better crew than I expected. Now we must continue. We can't go back, or they might attack us immediately. I don't think that they will attack us until we find the treasure. Long John Silver did not find all of this crew, so some of the men are good men. We must wait, watch and attack them when they don't expect it."

"Jim can help us," said Dr Livesy. "The men all trust him. He can listen and find out who we can trust."

I did not like this thought. I counted the men that Silver did not find for the crew. There were seven from a crew of nineteen, and I was one of them.

The next morning, the Hispaniola stopped close to the island. There were many trees, and above the trees I saw the rocky tops of the hills. Silver helped Captain Smollett to sail the boat closer to the shore. It was very hot and very quiet. It smelled like bad eggs.

"This place is only good for diseases," said Silver.

The crew worked hard on our journey to the island, but now they did not seem to want to work. I remembered Dr Livesy talking about a mutiny. Perhaps it was near. Only Silver worked as hard as usual.

Later, Captain Smollett told us that he had a plan.

"Let's ask the men if they'd like to spend the afternoon on the island. If they go, we can take the ship. If they don't go, we know we need to fight them for the ship."

Mr Trelawney agreed. We decided to tell all the men we could trust about our plan and gave them all guns. Captain Smollett then told the crew that they could all have the afternoon on the island to relax, if they wanted to.

“When you hear a gun at the end of the day, it’ll be time to come back,” he said.

All the crew suddenly looked happy and they all agreed to go. Perhaps they thought that they could find the treasure immediately.

Captain Smollett asked Silver to organise the men. Six men would stay on the Hispaniola and thirteen would take the small boats to the shore. I realised that there were six of Silver’s men on the ship. The men in our group would not be able to take the ship, so I decided I would go with Silver onto the island. I got on one of the boats quietly, but Silver saw me. Had I made a big mistake?

The boat I was in was fast, and we were nearly on the beach first when I held onto the branch of a tree and jumped out of the boat. I heard someone calling me, but I did not listen and began to run as fast as I could.

When I stopped, I felt happy. Silver did not know where I was. This part of the island was open, with just a few trees. I could see the hills in front of me. As I walked, I saw pretty flowers, snakes and small birds.

Suddenly a cloud of birds flew into the sky and knew that something was coming towards me. I was correct, because I then heard people talking. I decided to hide behind some trees.

I realised that one of the people was Silver, but I could not hear what he was saying. Soon the birds returned, and I knew that the men had gone. I told myself that it was my job to find out what these men were planning to do. So I decided to follow them, without them seeing me. After a few minutes, I saw Silver and another sailor talking near a beach.

“I want you to join us, Tom, because I know you’re a good sailor. I’m telling you this to save you!” said Silver.

“Silver,” Tom replied, “you’re a good man and you shouldn’t work with these pirates. I’d prefer to lose my hand than work with them!”

I knew then that here was a man that we could trust. Then came news of another. I suddenly heard a terrible shout, then all was quiet.

“What was that?” asked Tom.

Silver smiled and said “That? Oh, I think that was Alan.”

“Alan!” cried Tom. “He’s a good man. If your men have hurt him, then you are no friend of mine. I won’t help you!”

Tom began to walk away from Silver along the beach. Silver suddenly threw his crutch at Tom, and it hit him hard on the back. He fell to the ground, and before he could stand again, Silver killed him with a knife.

Silver now blew a whistle and I knew that more of his men would soon arrive on the beach. I was very frightened. I walked quietly back into the trees, then ran as quickly as I could.

As I ran, I began to think. What could I do now? When we heard Captain Smollett’s gun, could I go back to the beach to be with these men? If I did, I knew that they would kill me. I would have to stay on the island forever.

- Look at the title of the article and the image. What do you know about the Internet of Things?
- How is it important that all machines should be connected?

Reading

- 1 Read the magazine article and match the headings with the correct paragraphs 1–4.
 A No more driving B Possible problems
 C Linking the world D Connecting our homes
- 2 Read the text again and answer the questions.
 - 1 What is the Internet of Things?
It is machines talking to each other.

 - 3 What won't people need to buy in the future?

 - 4 Why are some people worried about the IOT?

 - 5 Which organisations do criminals hack into?

 - 6 What more do you think the IOT may be able to do in the future?

The Internet of Things

Communication is no longer about people talking to one another, but about machines talking to machines. This is known as the Internet of Things (IOT). Technology is developing so fast that experts believe everyone will be connected to the IOT in a few years.

Many things in our own homes are going to be connected to the IOT. Already, people can control their heating and lighting from their phones, but in the future computers will make the decisions for us. They'll even be able to say when the rubbish bins need to be emptied and control how much water we use!

3 A

Cars can already connect to the internet using smartphones, but imagine if you can get a driverless car to come and collect you using an app on your phone. All driverless cars will be electric and much cleaner than petrol ones. Experts think our roads will be safer as there will be fewer accidents using driverless cars.

Language

- 2 Underline the future verb forms in the speech bubbles. Then match each sentence with the correct use.

- a future fact
- b future arrangement
- c future plan or intention
- d future prediction 1
- e quick decision or offer

Use will + infinitive

- for prediction with no evidence (based on guesswork):
I think we will use computers in all schools.
- We can use will + infinitive with present evidence with adverbs like: probably, definitely, certainly, etc.

Look at these dark clouds; it will probably rain.

- for future facts: More machines will connect to one another.
- for quick decisions and offers: My phone's ringing I'll answer it.

Use am/is/are + going to + infinitive

- for future plans, decisions and plans and intentions:
I'm going to buy some clothes online this afternoon.
- for predictions with evidence: Look at this advert. The phone company is going to introduce a new flexible smartphone.

Use the present continuous

- to talk about things that you have arranged:
I have already booked the tickets; we are travelling abroad today.

3 Choose the correct answers to complete the dialogues.

- A: I don't know how to connect my TV to my phone.
B: It's easy! I'm going to show/ I'll show you.
- A: Experts are testing/will test their new driverless cars tomorrow. They're completely ready.
B: Really? I think a driverless car is a brilliant idea.
- A: Do you use computers at your school?

Lesson 5

Treasure Island

Before you read

- What do you think Jim should do next?

Chapter 5

I finally stopped running and saw that I was close to the bottom of one of the small hills.

The air was fresher here and the trees were taller. Suddenly, from up the hill, something jumped behind a tree. I did not know if it was a man or an animal but it looked big and dangerous. I decided to walk back towards the beach, but then I saw him again. I realised it was a man, but he was running very fast from tree to tree. I remembered that I had a gun and this made me feel safer. I decided to walk towards the man.

When he saw me walking towards him, to my surprise, he came out from behind the tree and knelt down in front of me.

"Who are you?" I asked.

"Ben Gun," he said in a dry voice. "I've not spoken to anyone for three years."

The man had very long hair and skin that was burned by the sun. His clothes were dirty and made of old sails.

"What happened to you?" I asked.

"I was left here by a ship," he said. "I've lived on fish and fruit ever since. I dream of eating good food again."

"If I can get back to my ship, I'll give you bread and cheese," I said.

He began to look worried. "If you can get back to your ship?! Why? What's to stop you?" he said.

"It isn't a problem with you," I replied.

"I'm a good man," he told me. "I'm very rich, too!" he said in a quiet voice.

I began to think that perhaps Ben Gun was crazy. Ben Gun saw that I did not believe him.

"I am rich! And you can be rich too, because you found me!" he said. Then he looked worried and said, "You didn't come on Flint's ship, did you?"

I realised now that this man could help me.

"No, Flint's dead, but some of Flint's crew is on the ship. That is not good for any of us." I told him.

"Is there a man with one leg?" he asked.

"Yes, Silver. He's the cook and their leader," I explained.

"If you work for Silver, I'm finished," he said.

I decided to tell him my story from the start, and he looked very interested.

"You're a good boy," he said at the end.

"Don't worry, you can trust me. Do you think that Trelawney would give me money and allow me to come home on the ship if I helped him?" he asked.

"Of course," I replied. "And he'll need your help on the ship home, I'm sure."

"You're right," he said. "You know, I was on Flint's ship when he hid the treasure here. He was with six men and they were on the island for about a week. We waited for them on a ship called the Walrus. One day, Flint returned to the ship on his own. The other six men were dead. We don't know how he did it. Billy Bones and Long John Silver were with me on the ship. They asked Flint where the treasure was. 'You can go on the island and look for it,' he said. 'But you'll be there on your own. I'm taking this ship home.'

"Three years ago, I was on a different ship. When we saw the island, I told our crew that Flint's treasure was on it. We spent twelve days looking for it. They were not happy when we found nothing. One day, they went back to the ship and told me I could stay. 'Here's a gun and a spade. You can look for the treasure on your own!' they said. So, you tell Trelawney, I would prefer to work for a man I can trust like him, than with a group of pirates."

"I'll tell him, but how can I return to my ship from here?" I asked him.

"I have a boat. I made it myself. We could go to the ship when it's dark!"

Suddenly, we heard the sound of a gun.

"They have started to fight," I said. "We must be quick!"

I began to run back with Ben. He gave me directions, and ran easily next to me. We heard more guns, then I saw a flag flying above some trees.

Reading

- 2 You're going to read a short biography about an author called Robert Louis Stevenson. Have you read any of his work? What do you think he wrote about?

Robert Louis Stevenson was born in Scotland in 1850 and died 44 years later in Samoa, a small island in the South Pacific. He was not always well because the weather in Edinburgh was too cold for him. When he was a child he couldn't always go to school. He studied to become a lawyer at Edinburgh University, but he always wanted to write. At the age of 21 he decided to become a full-time writer.

He often travelled to warmer places to try to improve his health. For a while he lived in France and this was where he met his wife, Fanny. She was from the United States, so Stevenson also travelled to America with her.

Although he is best known for his novels, like Kidnapped and Strange Case of Dr Jekyll and Mr Hyde, Stevenson also wrote many poems and travel books. His first successful novel was Treasure Island – an adventure story about pirates. His books are still very popular today and many of them have been made into films.

Bed in Summer

In winter I get up at night
And dress by yellow candlelight.
In summer quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.

I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree,
Or hear the grown-up people's feet
Still going past me in the street.

And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?

Khaled, 4:04 PM

The words Stevenson has used very clearly describe the situations he's writing about and I really like that. I also think the poem's subject is very interesting because everyone feels differently in different seasons. In my opinion, poets should write about everyday life. However, I think the second verse is too long and its rhythm is too slow.

Hamid, 5:36 PM

I love the language in the poem, especially the way Stevenson describes the light at different times of day. I also think the second verse is great because the rhymes in it are so clever. However, in my opinion, the poem's subject is quite boring because going to bed and getting up aren't very interesting activities. I think poets should write about more exciting things.

Before you start

- Which poems or poets do you like? Why?
- What's your favourite poem? What's special about it?
- Which do you think is more difficult to write, a poem or a story? Why?

Reading

- 2 Read Sara's paragraph about Bed in Summer. Answer the questions.

My favourite poem is Bed in Summer because it describes how I felt when I was young. In the summer I had to go to bed when it was light and I hated it. Like the author I wanted to be outside playing and I didn't think it was fair that everyone else was outside having fun.

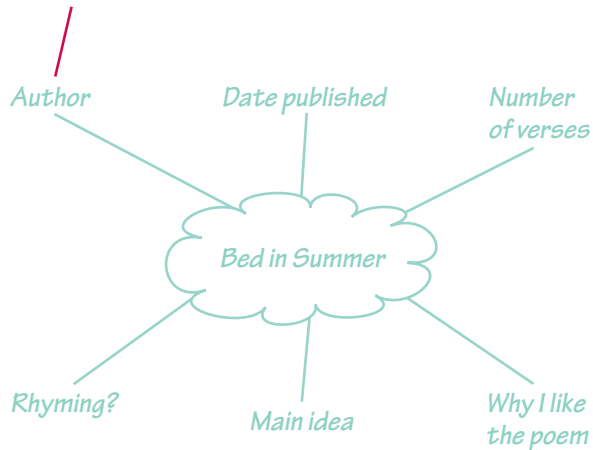

It's a good length for a poem, only three verses and I like the fact that the words rhyme. I don't like poems which don't rhyme. The first two lines rhyme, 'night' and 'light' and then the next two lines rhyme, 'way' and 'day'. This makes it easy to say and easy to remember!

Robert Louis Stevenson was ill when he was a child and stayed in bed a lot. That's why I think he wrote this poem.

Writing

- 1 Look back at the poem Bed in Summer and complete the mind map. There is one part of the mind map you can't complete yet. What is it?

Robert Louis Stevenson

- a Why does Sara like this poem?
Sara likes this poem because it describes how she felt when she was young.
- b What does Sara think is good about the poem?
- c What kind of poetry does she dislike?
.....
- d What reason does she give for the author writing this poem?
.....

- 3 Now, write a short paragraph ressay on your favourite poem. Use the mind map in Exercise 1 and Sara's review in Exercise 2 to help you.

Lesson 5

Treasure Island

Before you read

- What do you think is happening on the ship while Jim, Silver and the other men are on the island?

Chapter 6

Dr Livesy:

When the boats went to the shore, I talked to Captain Smollett and Mr Trelawney. There was no wind at all, so we knew we could not take the ship, even if we wanted to attack the six men who stayed on the ship with us. Then we heard that Jim Hawkins was on the island with Silver and his men. We were very worried about him.

I decided to take a boat to the shore with another man we could trust, called Hunter. When we reached the island, we walked a little way and then we found a small fort. It was big enough for about twenty-five people and was very well defended. It also had water. Then I heard a shout. I thought that Jim was dead.

We ran back to the boat and soon returned to the Hispaniola. I told Captain Smollett and Mr Trelawney my plan. We quickly put food, medicines and guns in the boat.

At the same time, Captain Smollett and Mr Trelawney said to Silver's men who were still on the ship, "We have guns. If you try to contact Silver, you will be dead."

They looked very surprised.

I then took the boat back to the beach with Hunter and another sailor called Joyce. We quickly took everything up to the fort, then I left Hunter and Joyce in the fort and returned to the Hispaniola.

We knew that Silver had more men than us, but we also knew that none of them had guns. We thought that this gave us an advantage. On the Hispaniola, Trelawney helped me to put food and more weapons into the boat. Then we called for Captain Smollett, Redruth and a good sailor called Abraham Gray, and they climbed into the boat with us.

Our journey back to the island was more difficult than the others. There were more people and supplies now, so the boat was heavy and very close to the water. We had to be very careful to prevent the boat from sinking. The wind blew from a different direction, too, and we were not moving towards the beach near the fort.

"We'll never get to the beach!" I said.

"We must keep in this direction," said Captain Smollett. "Work hard, be patient, and we will arrive." Then his voice changed. "The cannon!" he called.

I looked round and realised that the men we left on the Hispaniola were preparing a cannon. We were moving so slowly that we were not far from the ship. It would be easy for them to hit us.

Trelawney stood up with a gun and fired at the pirates, and one of them fell.

We heard a cry from the ship, and another from the beach. We saw that the other pirates were getting into their boats.

"Go as fast as you can," said Captain Smollett. "If we don't get to the beach, we're finished."

"They are only using one boat" I said. "The other men are walking to the beach to wait for us."

"It's a long way for them to run," said Captain Smollett. "It's a race to get there first."

We moved fast, and the wind was not so strong near the beach. However, Trelawney fired his gun again which made us all move to one side of the boat. It started to sink, but we were in just three feet of water. It was not difficult to walk to the beach, but we had lost many of our supplies in the water, including some of our guns.

There were now voices in the trees and we knew that the pirates were near. We had to get to the fort before the pirates got to the beach. We all ran as fast as possible and at last we saw the fort in front of us. At the same time, seven pirates arrived at the other side of it. The pirates looked surprised to see the fort and stopped. This gave us time to fire our guns, and they quickly turned and ran into the trees behind them.

Before we could enter the fort, we heard another gun fire, and poor Redruth fell down. We quickly picked him up and took him into the fort, but it was too late: he was dead. Trelawney was very sad. Redruth had been a good servant to him.

Captain Smollett put up a flag inside the fort and counted the supplies, then he asked me, "How long will we have to spend on this island?"

"In England, I told Blandly that if we were not back by August, to come and find us," I explained.

"We need the supplies that were lost in the sea," said Captain Smollett. "Without them, we have enough supplies until July only."

At that moment, we heard gun fire and the fort was nearly hit.

"They can see the flag," said Trelawney. "We should take it down."

"No!" said Captain Smollett. "We keep the flag! It will show the pirates that we are not frightened of them!"

The gun fire continued, but it was almost impossible for them to hit anyone inside the fort.

Just then, we heard someone calling.

"Doctor! Mr Trelawney! Captain! Are you there?"

I ran to the door of the fort and I found Jim Hawkins, safe and alive!

Before you start

- How do you communicate with friends when they are away?
- Do you communicate with people you do not know very well? How?

Reading

- 1 Read the text and choose the best title.
 - 1 Why penfriends are history
 - 2 Penfriends are here to stay
 - 3 The last and longest penfriends

Communication is easy today. Many people use apps on their smartphones to talk to their friends. When we send a message to a friend, we take it for granted that he or she will reply very soon.

Before the internet, people wrote letters and many people had penfriends. These were people they did not always meet, but people they chose to write to about their lives. The letters sometimes took a long time to arrive, but penfriends were very popular.

An example is Nellie Roberts and Daphne Meech. These two Australian women are now 90 years old. They first decided to write to each other in the 1930s, and are now perhaps the longest two people ever to be penfriends. Nellie Roberts first had penfriends when she was 10, but only one penfriend continued to write to her. Like Nellie, Daphne lived on a farm and the two women enjoyed writing about their lives. As well as letters, they sent each other black and white photos. They did not meet until 1962, 30 years after their first letter.

Nellie still prefers writing letters, and says that she is never going to use technology to communicate.

Surprisingly, there are now many online clubs for penfriends. They encourage people to write letters to penfriends around the world, and they are very successful. Many say that writing letters is relaxing and a warmer way to communicate than with an email or text. You do not need apps, passwords or anti-virus software. As Nellie says, 'Just a pen and paper will do.'

- 2 Read the article again and answer the questions in your notebook.
 - 1 What do we expect will happen when we send a message to a friend?
We think the friend will reply to us very soon.
 - 2 What was different about communication before the internet?

2 Which words rhyme in the poem?

.....

3 Does the poem have a rhythm? What is it like?

.....

How do you like to go up in a swing,
Up in the air so blue?
Oh, I do think it the pleasantest thing
Ever a child can do!

Up in the air and over the wall,
Till I can see so wide,
Rivers and trees and cattle and all
Over the countryside—

Till I look down on the garden green,
Down on the roof so brown—
Up in the air I go flying again,
Up in the air and down!

Glossary

pleasantest = nicest

till = until

cattle = the general word for cows and bulls

- 2 Discuss these questions in pairs.
- 1 What do you think the poem is about?
 - 2 Is it successful? Why/Why not?

R2 Lesson 5

UNIT

Present simple, past simple and present simple passive

Present simple

Statements and negative statements

I/You/We/They	study/do not (don't) study	in Alexandria.
He/She/It	studies/does not (doesn't) study	here.

Wh- questions

Where	do	I/you/we/they	study?
When	does	he/she

Yes/No questions and answers

Do	I/you/we/they	study	in Alexandria?	Yes, we do.	No, we do not (don't).
Does	he/she/it	study	here?	Yes, he does.	No, he does not (doesn't).

Uses of the present simple

- for actions, facts or for situations that are always or usually true: We live in the centre of Cairo.
- for habits and repeated actions: Children often help their parents and grandparents to do things.

Frequency adverbs

- Use frequency adverbs with present simple verbs to say how often something happens.
Common frequency adverbs: never >> sometimes >> often >> usually >> always
- Frequency adverbs are usually before present simple verbs: We always help our parents when they're busy.
- Note frequency adverbs come after the verb be: It is usually sunny in my country.

Past simple

Statements and negative statements

I/You/He/She/It/We/They	finished/did not finish (didn't finish)	the book yesterday.
-------------------------	---	---------------------

Wh- questions

When	did	I/you/he/she/it/we/they	finish?
------	-----	-------------------------	---------

Yes/No questions and answers

Did	I/you/he/she/it/we/they	finish on time?	Yes, I did.	No, we did not (didn't).
-----	-------------------------	-----------------	-------------	--------------------------

Uses of the past simple

- for actions which started and finished in the past: Our train left at 7.15 yesterday morning.
- for actions which follow each other in the past: We arrived home quite late and found nobody in. We knocked on the door, but nobody came.
- for repeated past actions: I worked for five hours every day last week.

Present simple passive

Statements and negative statements

The present of to be (am/are/is) + past participle:

I	am ('m not)	taught by a teacher.
You/We/They	are (aren't)
He/She/It	is (isn't)

Wh- questions

Why	am	I	brought	here by taxi every day?
When	is	he/she	expected	to arrive
Why	are	you/we/they	given	so many things?

The agent

- The agent is the person or thing that does the action in a sentence with a passive verb. It is introduced by the preposition by:
 - The cattle are attacked by lions every day. (Lions attack the cattle every day.)
 - The lions are protected by the Lion Guardians. (The Lion Guardians protect the cattle.)
- Many sentences with passive verbs do not need an agent because we do not know, or do not need to know who did the action, or because it is not important who did it:
 - Massai men are taught to be field biologists. (We do not know who teaches them.)
 - Lions are monitored every day. (We can guess that the Lion Guardians monitor them, but it's not important.)

Common errors

Correct	Incorrect	Explanation
The villagers are helped by the Lion Guardians.	The villagers helped by the Lion Guardians.	The passive is formed with the verb be + the past participle of the main verb.

UNIT 2 Past continuous

Past continuous

Statements and negative statements

I/He/She/It	was/was not (wasn't) cooking	yesterday evening.
You/We/They	were/were not (weren't) watching	TV last night.

Wh- questions

Where	was	I/he/she/it	cooking	yesterday evening?
What	were	you/we/they	watching	on TV last night?

Language review

Yes/No questions and answers

Were	you/we/they	cooking yesterday?	Yes, we were.	No, we were not (weren't).
Was	I/he/she/it	watching TV last night?	Yes, he was.	No, he was not (wasn't).

Uses of the past continuous

- for something that was in progress when an action took place (note that the action is in the past simple):
While we were watching TV last night, someone turned the lights off.
- for two actions that were in progress at the same time:
While I was watching TV last night, my sister was reading a magazine.

Common errors

Correct	Incorrect	Explanation
When Mona called, Soha was having her breakfast.	When Mona called, Soha having her breakfast.	The past continuous has two parts: Was/were and an -ing form.

UNIT 3

Present perfect

Present perfect

Statements and negative statements

I/You/We/They	have/have not (haven't) studied	David Copperfield.
He/She/It	has/has not (hasn't) studied

Wh- questions

Where	have	I/you/we/they	studied?
When	has	he/she/it

Yes/No questions and answers

Have	I/you/we/they	studied David Copperfield?	Yes, I have.	No, I have not (haven't).
Has	he/she/it		Yes, she has.	No, she has not (hasn't).

Uses of the present perfect

- to describe actions which began in the past and are still continuing:
I've lived here all my life (until now, and I'm still living here).
- to describe actions which have happened recently: He's just finished his first year at university.
- with never, ever and since to describe experiences: My grandmother has never visited another country.
Laila has enjoyed reading (ever) since she was very young (and she still enjoys reading now).
- to describe actions which have NOT happened yet: She's never played tennis.

Common errors

Correct	Incorrect	Explanation
She has never been to Italy.	She never been to Italy.	The present perfect has two parts: the verb have + a past participle verb form.
Hassan went to Turkey last summer.	Hassan has been to Turkey last summer.	When we want to say when something happened, we use the past simple, not the present perfect.

UNIT 4

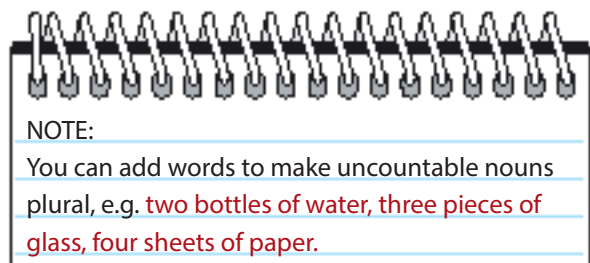

Countable and uncountable nouns, and articles

Countable nouns

- Nouns with singular and plural forms are called countable nouns:
a bottle, two bottles, a hundred bottles; a child, three children; a man, ten men
- Singular countable nouns can be used with a/an or one:
Ali is eating a banana. Sara would like an apple. Hassan has eaten one banana and two oranges.
- Plural countable nouns can be used with numbers, How many, so/not many, a few, fewer:
I'd like six apples, please. How many grapes would you like? Can I have a few grapes?
Fewer people live in the country today than in the past.

Uncountable nouns

- Nouns which have only one form (no plural) are called uncountable nouns:
air, water, light, money, glass, paper
- Uncountable nouns are used with some, How much, so/not much, (a) little:
Be careful, there's some glass on the floor.
How much light is there in the cave?
We don't have much money. There is only a little water to drink.

Common errors

Correct	Incorrect	Explanation
Could I borrow a piece of paper, please?	Could I borrow a paper , please?	We cannot use a/an with uncountable nouns like paper.

Definite article

Uses of the definite article the

- to refer to something you have already talked about:
His father works in an office. The office is near the city centre.
She bought a book by Charlotte Brontë yesterday. The book is called Jane Eyre.

Language review

- when there is only one of something, or when everyone knows which thing or person you are talking about:

The moon looks very near to the earth tonight.
(There is only one moon and earth.)

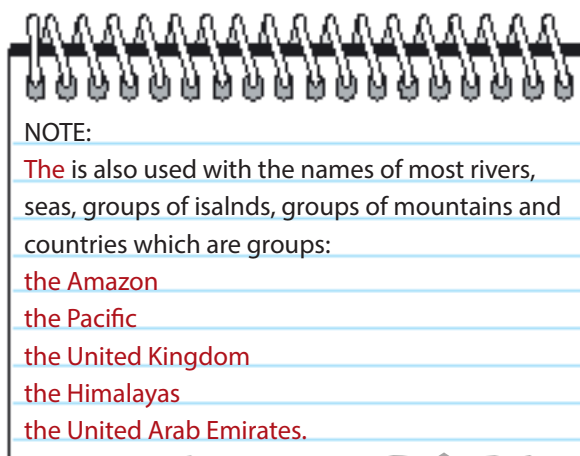

We had a picnic in the park at the weekend.
(This is the park we all know, probably the nearest or only park in the town.)

- with superlative adjectives and other words (first, last, only, etc.):

That's the best film I've ever seen.

The Nile is the longest river in the world.

The first letter of the alphabet is A.

Indefinite article

Uses of the indefinite article a/an

- to refer to something for the first time: Her father has just bought a new car.
When Ali visited Thailand, he had a ride on an elephant.
- to talk about someone's job: Imad wants to be a scientist when he finishes university.
His sister, Sara, wants to be an architect.
- to refer to one of many things: My uncle and aunt live in a flat in the town centre.
I usually have an egg for breakfast.

A or an?

- If a noun (or adjective before a noun) starts with a vowel sound, use the indefinite article an:
an animal, an elephant, an interview, an orange bus, an unusual building
- The letter u at the beginning of a word is sometimes pronounced y. In these cases, use the article a:
a uniform, a university, a useful book

Common errors

Correct	Incorrect	Explanation
Her father works in an office.	Her father works in a office.	If a noun starts with a vowel sound, use the article an, not a.
His brother wants to be a teacher.	His brother wants to be teacher.	Use the indefinite article to refer to jobs.
That's a beautiful bird.	That the beautiful bird.	Use a, not the, to refer to one of many.

Future forms

will + infinitive

Statements and negative statements

I/You/He/She/We/They	will/I'll	see you tomorrow.
	will not/won't

Wh- questions

When	will	I/you/he/she/we/ they	arrive?
------	------	--------------------------	---------

Yes/No questions and short answers

Will	he	be late?
------	----	----------

Yes, he will.	No, he won't.
---------------	---------------

Uses of will + infinitive

- for predictions with no evidence: I expect Lucy and Jim will stay for dinner.
- for future facts: It's my birthday next Tuesday. I'll be 17.
- for quick decisions: Oh, that's the doorbell. I'll get it.
- for offers: I'll make dinner tonight.

Common errors

Correct	Incorrect	Explanation
The water is boiling: I'll switch it off in a minute.	The water is boiling: I'm switching it off in a minute.	For a quick decision, use will, not the present continuous.

going to + infinitive

Statements and negative statements

I	am ('m)/am not ('m not)	going to work hard this term.
You/We/They	are ('re)/are not (aren't)
He/She	is ('s)/is not (isn't)

Wh- questions

	am	I	going to do tomorrow?
What	are	you/we/they
	is	he/she

Yes/No questions and short answers

Are	you/we/they	going to work hard?
Is	he/she

Yes, they are.	No, they aren't.
Yes, he is.	No, he isn't.

Language review

Uses of going to + infinitive

- for plans, intentions and decisions: Next month, I'm going to buy a new phone.
- for predictions with evidence: It's really dark. I think it's going to rain.

Common errors

Correct	Incorrect	Explanation
What are you going to do now? I'm going to watch television.	I'm watching television	You can only plan to decide to watch television, you can't arrange it.

Verbs + infinitive or -ing forms

Verbs + infinitive
